Amendments to the Specification

Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 3, line 22, with the following rewritten paragraph:

C' The mobile computer 101 can receive unicast traffic and multicast traffic. At unicast traffic, the nodes deal with the resource reservations of the data streams separately. At multicast traffic, the nodes deal with the resource reservations in common when the data streams are in common for all receivers 101 and 103. In Figure 1, the node 104, closest to the transmitter 105, deals with the resource reservations in common.
